FOREWORD

As graduation time approaches, we look forward to the time when we will be able to explore the unknown world around us. We will carry with us all the knowledge and learning we have acquired at Huntington High School. As we recall the many wonderful events we shared during our five years in high school, we shall remember, especially, the places where we gathered to study, to play, and just to be together. Our yearbook, the HUNTINGTONIAN, will help us to remember the important landmarks which contributed to our happiness, pleasures, and even our disappointments. We shall remember the eighth grade, our freshman, sophomore and junior years and particularly our magnificent days as seniors. We shall remember 1967 for IT WAS A VERY GOOD YEAR.

Dedication

MRS. MAMYE E. BACOTE

With contriteness of spirit, devotedness of heart and respect for humility, the graduating class of 1967 dedicates this edition of the HUNTINGTONIAN to Mrs. Mamye E. BaCote, a versatile social studies teacher who has vastly enriched our understanding of world affairs. Whether it be world history, geography, or United States history, as she weaves her intellectual spell, the affect is the same--history made alive.

The same warmth, friendliness, and sincereity that is exemplified in her classroom is also felt by those who have come to know her as a teacher and friend. Her devotion, patience, and understanding have made a real contribution to our development.

Among the extracurricular activities offered at Huntington, you can find Mrs. BaCote at work as sponsor of the National Senior Honor Society and as co-chairman of the Student Council.

The warmth generated by her dynamic personality has won her countless friends. Here, Mrs. BaCote takes time out to chat with seniors.

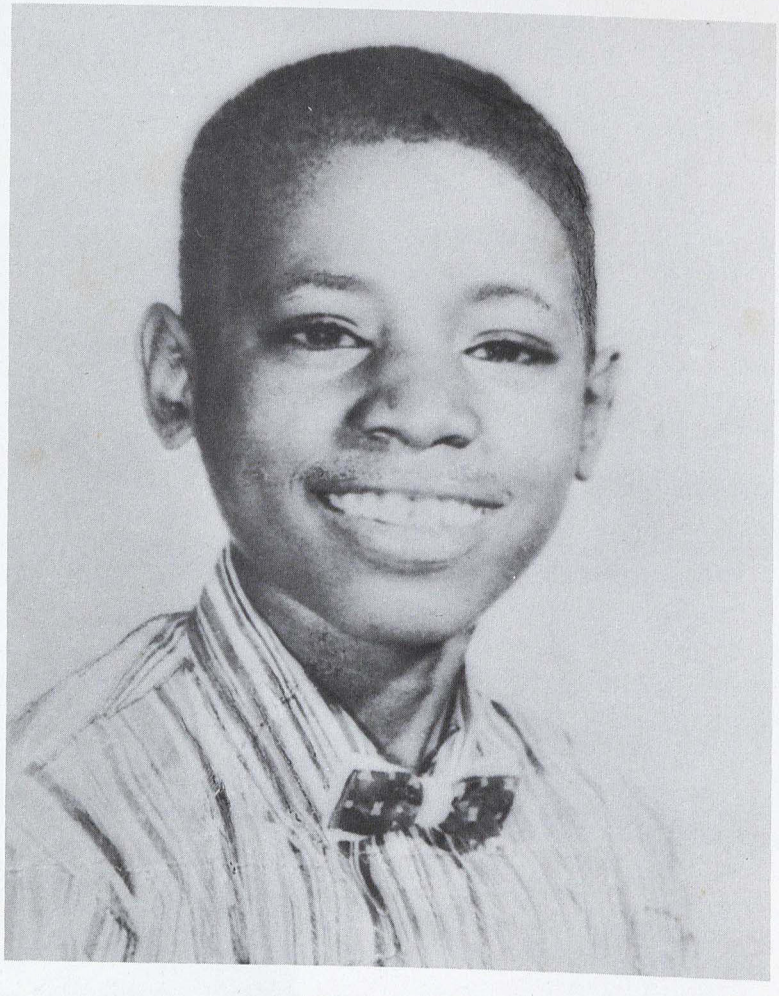

Mrs. BaCote is a graduate of Virginia Union University with an A.B. degree in social studies. She received the M.A. degree in United States History from Hampton Institute.

The wife of Theodore E. BaCote, one of our football coaches, and the mother of two sons, Theodore III and Derek.

DEDICATION

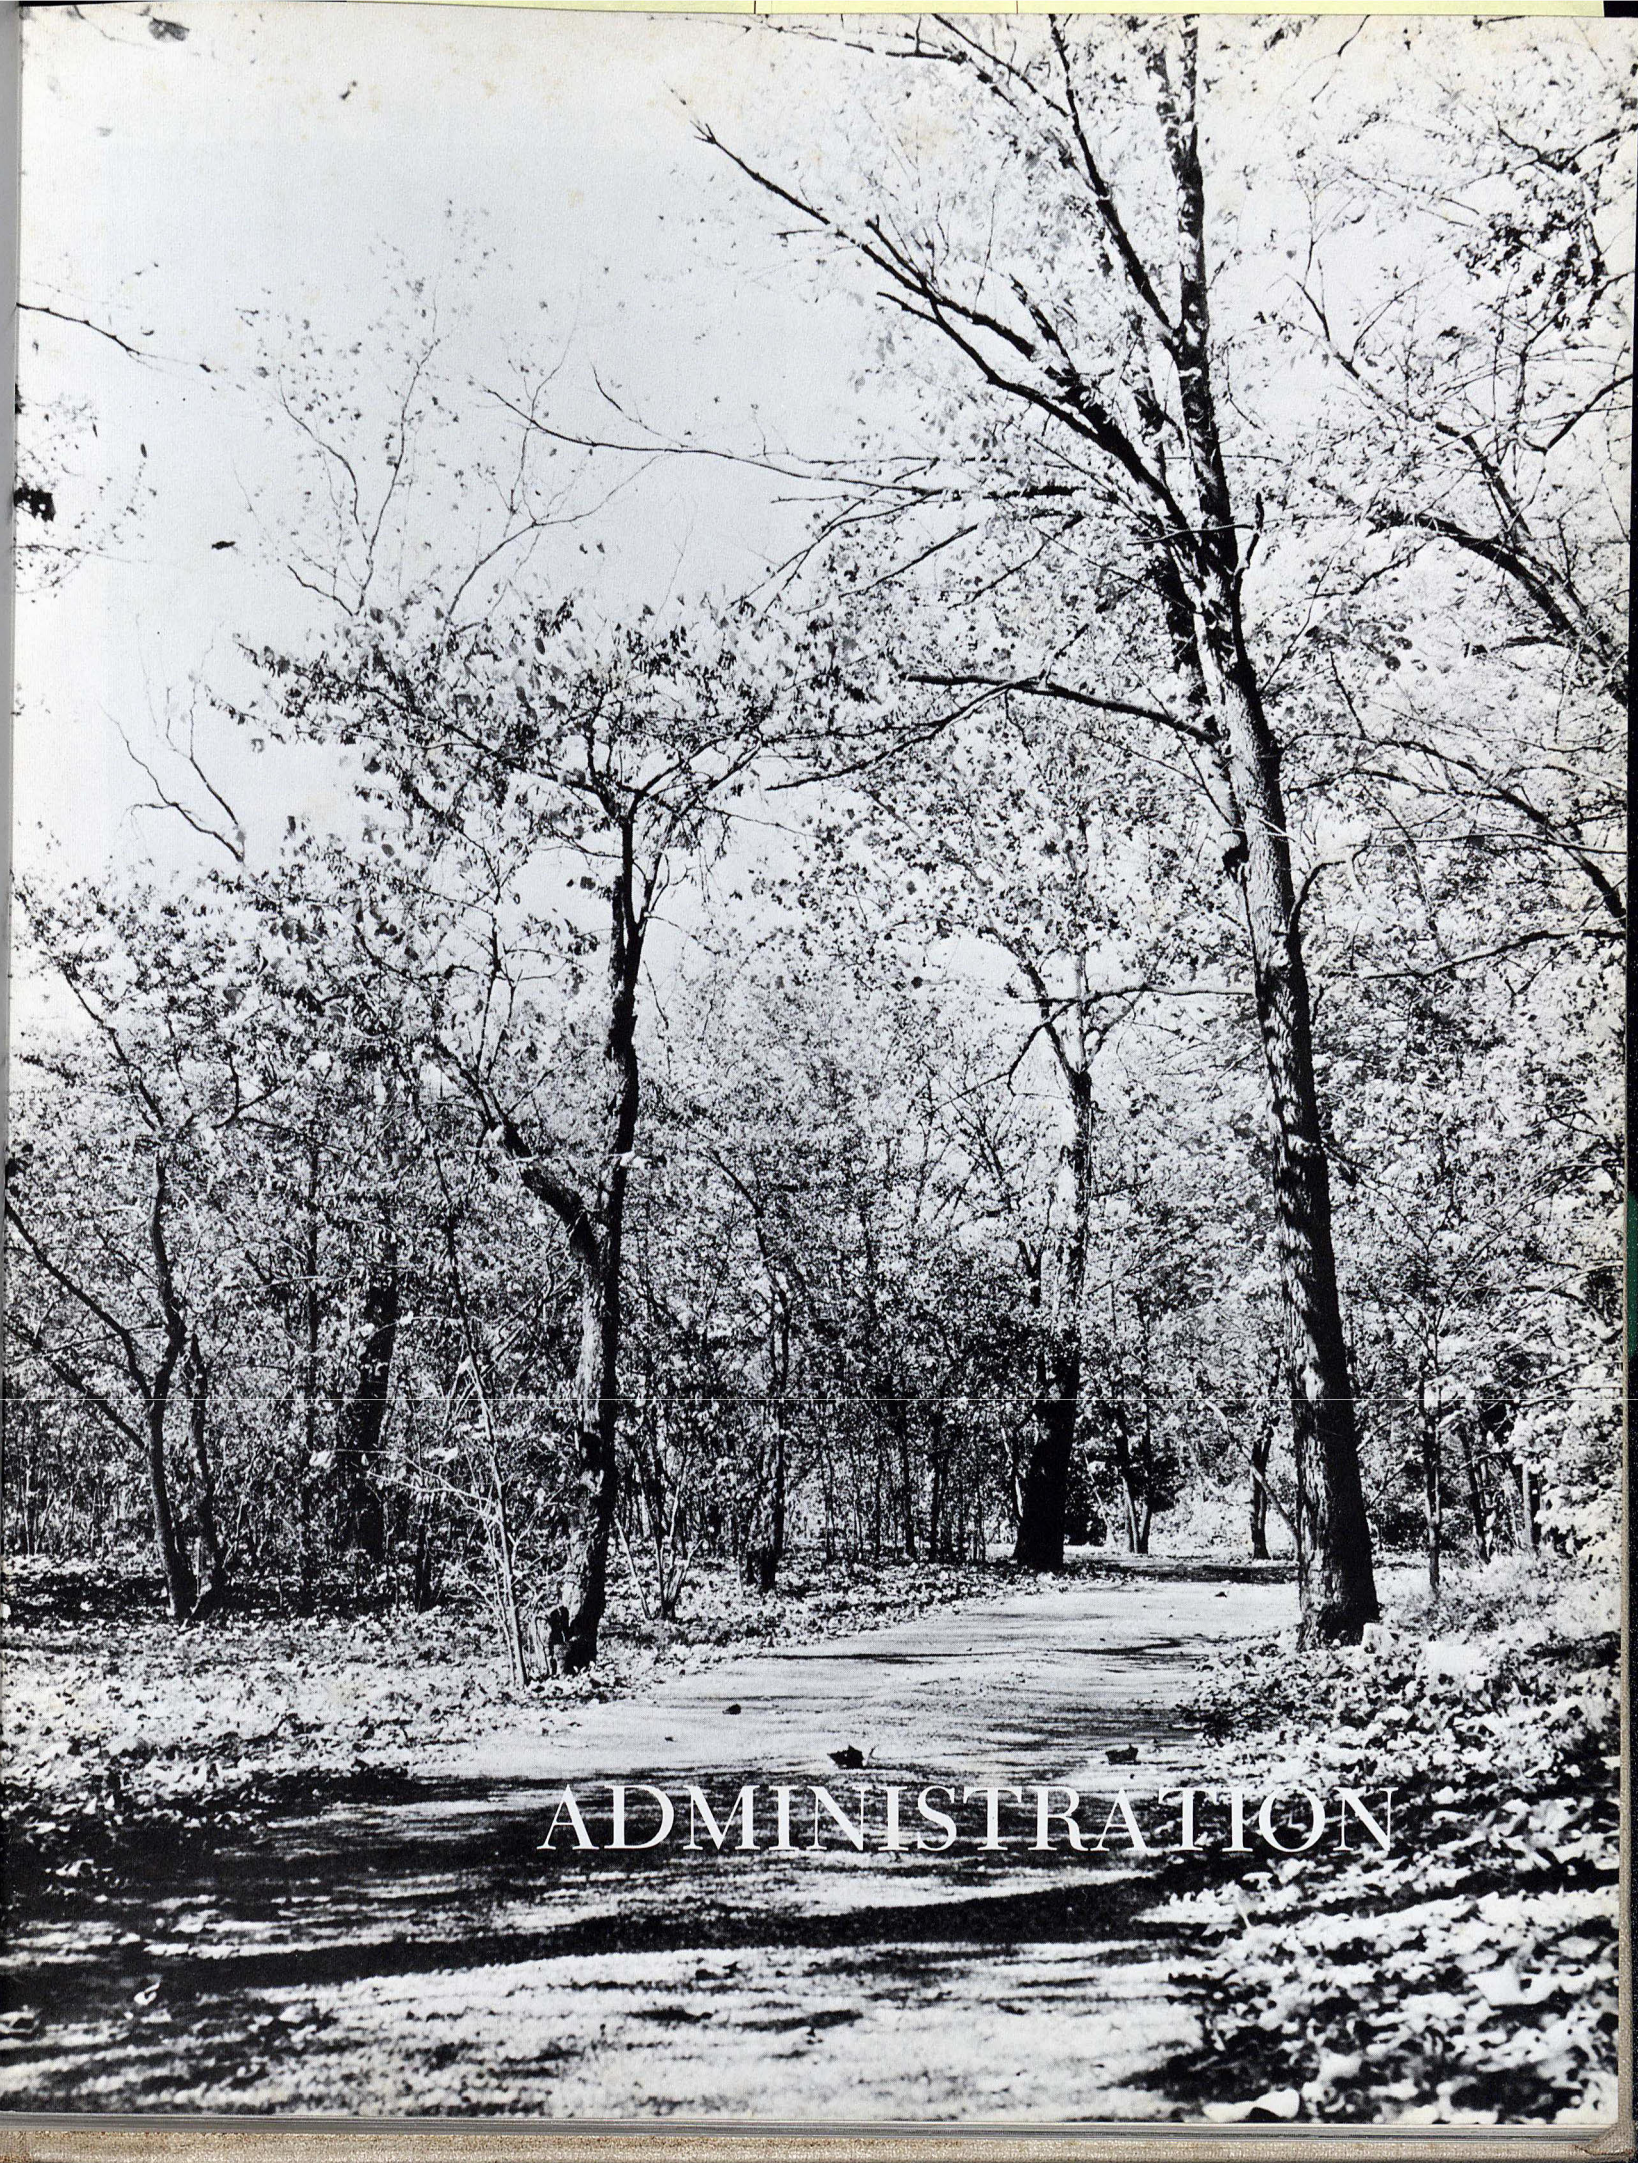

We dedicate this page in memory of our beloved classmate, Edward Tyson, who before his demise in the Spring of 1966, was once a part of our many activities.

EDWARD TYSON

We lost a friend long years ago
Awhile our paths together lay,
And we were happy by the way
Until we parted--years ago.
From out each other's lives we passed;
Each went his way, but yet, at last,
Or here, or in eternity,
God will give back our friend to us.

--Paton H. Hoge

CONSTANT PROGRESS IS GOAL OF PRINCIPAL

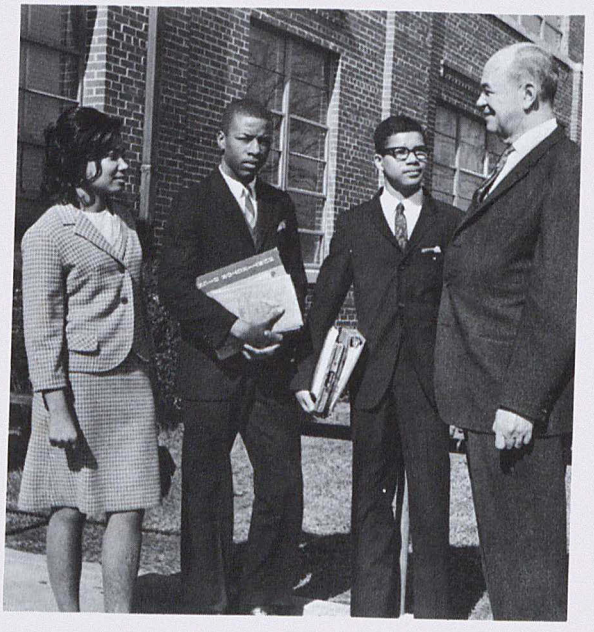

Much of his time is spent in the office.

Honor was never bestowed upon any man for receiving but it is awarded to him for giving unselfishly of himself in service to others.

Each of us in the Huntington Family has felt the warm glow of friendliness, the sincerity, and interest exhibited by our Principal, Mr. W. D. Scales. Through his effective and dynamic efforts our school's progress has accelerated tremendously. It is largely through his credit that Huntington is rated highly in the community. In recognition of his deep and sincere interest and continuous efforts in their behalf the student body honored him on two occasions, once with a self-portrait and again with the dedication to him of the school hymn written and composed by members of the faculty and student body.

In recognition of his many years of loyal service, the Boys and Girls Culture Clubs presented a self-portrait to Mr. Scales.

Time out for conversation with students.

A Hymn To Huntington

Guide well our thoughts and send them ever upwards;
Cast out the darkness and bring forth the light.
O, wondrous God, of beauty and all wisdom
Spread out thy hand and show us all thy might.
Show how each one of us may gain more wisdom
If we should live by thy Great Rule of Right.

Dear Huntington, to Thee we sing our praises
Of times gone by and never more shall be.
Within your walls we gain a lasting knowledge
Of faith and hope and love that flows from Thee.
With humble hearts we raise our voices high
We love you dear when we are far or nigh.

CHORUS

O God, as we review the worth of Huntington,
Realize do we that all strength comes from Thee.
Still guide our minds to reach a greater height
And help us know how thankful we should be.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL RENDERS INVALUABLE SERVICES

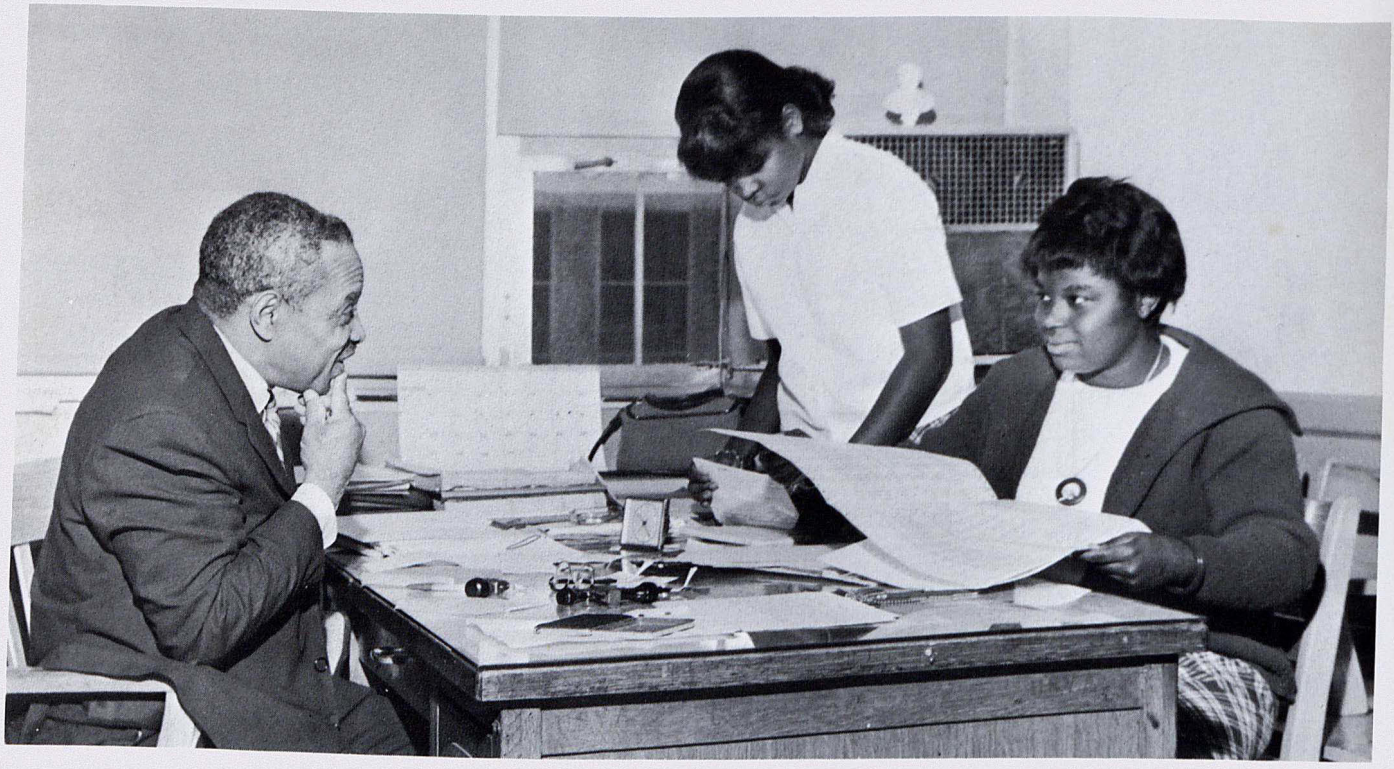

A school as large and complex as ours cannot be rated highly through the efforts of one person. Thus, our Assistant Principal, Mr. C. C. Johnson, stands next in line to receive our praise.

In an effort to make Huntington a more efficiently and progressive school. Mr. Johnson works diligently with the students to help them adjust to the school program.

His many duties include director of summer school, study hall supervisor, program director, and disciplinarian.

Good school programs demand careful planning.

As the demands for efficiency become greater, Mr. C. C. Johnson finds having helpers make matters go more smoothly. Mary Gayle and Yvonne Holland assist in checking the principal's list for students needing class admission slips.

DEAN OF GIRLS FOCUSES HER INTEREST ON BUILDING CHARACTER

STRENGTHENING OUR LIVES WITH GUIDANCE

Through the years our ultimate objective has remained before us --to excel. Thinking over the past, the road over which we have at last ascended, we must consider the remaining portion. As we consider this remaining portion, we must continue to cling, as previously, to the invaluable information which has been imparted to us by our Guidance Director, Mrs. E. M. Green.

Barry Lockett, a senior, pays visit to Mrs. Green for wise counseling concerning college requirements and personal achievements.

In a new and purposeful period of intellectual growth, students have been aided by guidance in their adjustment to the many expectations of a changing society and world.

Mrs. Effie M. Green, Assistant Principal and Dean of Girls, confers with hundreds of students weekly in an effort to help them adjust to school life, solve problems, and answer the many questions which plague the adolescent mind. Administering test and keeping student records are additional guidance duties which must be performed by Mrs. Green.

Consider that I laboured not for myself only, but for all them that seek my guidance.

DEAN OF BOYS SHOWS PRIDE IN STUDENTS ACCOMPLISHMENTS

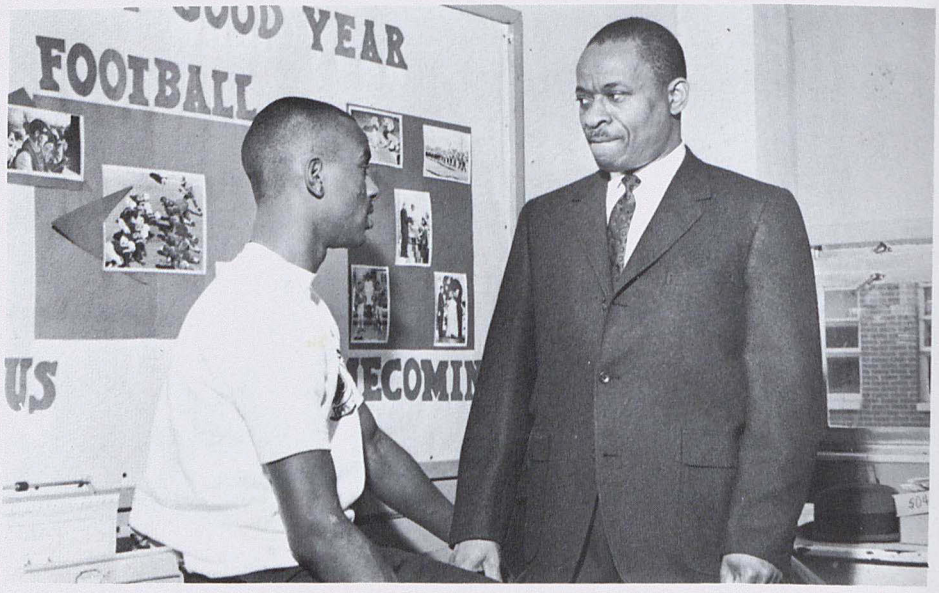

Mr. W. H. Holmes has been quite an influential figure here at Huntington High School. He has influenced those around him while service as teacher, guidance counselor, sports director, and dean of boys.

It is through his guidance that our time has been wisely spent, learning and working most assuredly toward our later goals of success.

As Dean of Boys, Mr. Holmes has enlightened the paths for many young men by showing them the correct way to find the solution to their problems.

As a teacher of chemistry, he encouraged many of the students to go into the field as a career.

As sports director, he shows pride in students accomplishments and encourages many of them to continue in their field upon college graduation.

WALTER BOWSER DISCUSSES FUTURE PLANS WITH MR. HOLMES.

After seeking the guidance of Mr. Holmes, Bowser, as well as, many other young men at Huntington High School gains insight into certain problems and leaves with not one but several solutions.

STUDENTS FOLLOW GOOD LEADERSHIP

MISS MABLE SMITH

Under the sponsorship of Miss Mable Smith, the Student Council of Huntington High School has reached new dimensions.

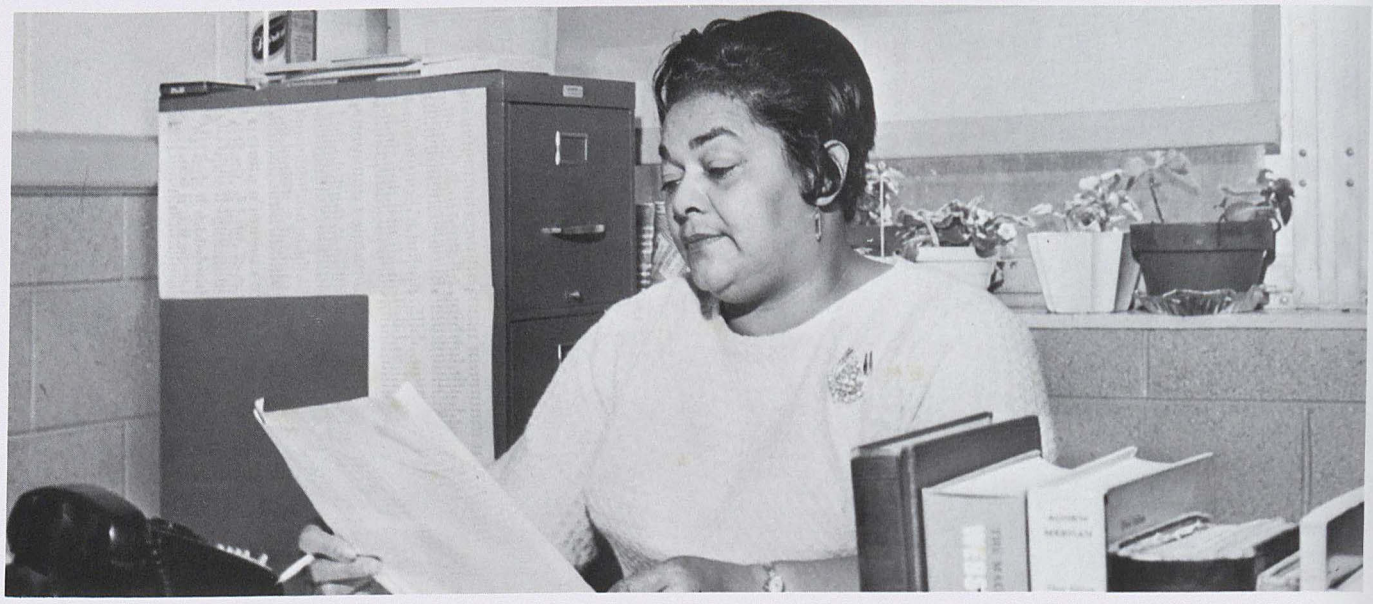

Truly the organization has become an active and dynamic liaison between the student body and the administration; it is a leader in the Peninsula and State organizations. Many of the local and state officers have been products of our Council and we have been represented on panels at the national level.

Miss Smith's foresight in organizing Leadership Classes has served to train large numbers of students to assume offices in the school and the community.

As a student body, we say "thank you, Miss Smith," for your role in aiding us to attain higher scholastic and ethical standards, and a greater and keener appreciation for cultural activities and last, in aiding us to equip ourselves to take our places in a democratic society.

Your versatility, your creativity, your indefatigability and your inspirational guidance will remain to us a joy forever.

COURTEOUSNESS AND EFFICIENCY ARE

Mrs. V. James, the personal secretary to the principal, finds typing letters, keeping statistics, answering the telephone, recording grades, making the morning announcements and keeping an accurate record of the school staff and personnel but a few of her many task.

Assorting attendance cards is one of the many duties of Mrs. T. General.

A continuing follow-up of students is one means of evaluating and improving the effectiveness of the school program. Mrs. Seabron realizes that a complete and accurate record of every child is important.

EVIDENT IN SECRETARIAL STAFF

Mrs. H. Lawson concentrates upon the hundreds of federal forms and pupil affadavits which must be completed and filed in the office of the school board.

The school bookkeeper, Mrs. L. Kea is responsible for a complete record of all financial transaction at Huntington.

IT WAS A VERY GOOD DAY

Still able to smile after a hard day of work, the secretarial staff takes time to pause for our photographer.

GUIDANCE AWAKENS STUDENT INTEREST IN MANY AREAS

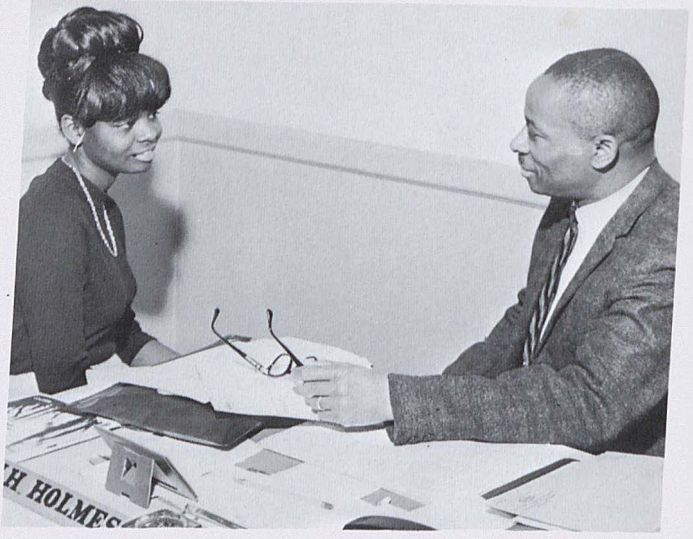

Mrs. Green, Director of Guidance, assist students in the selection of needed courses.

Mrs. Wilson assists Lara Brown in filling out her application to take a college entrance examination.

The guidance program at Huntington aims to assist students in understanding themselves and their problems; to enable them to make good use of their personal and environmental resources; and to help them make wise choices in dealing with problems of adjustment and guidance.

Lara Butts utilizes the services offered by the Guidance Department in obtaining information from Mr. Holmes about occupational possibilities.

A good student does not need a large sum of money to attend college. Mr. C. N. Carter explains to Paula Pugh how she may qualify for one of the many scholarships available to high school students.

For an effective program, individual counseling must be available to all pupils. Mrs. V. Batten assists Joanne Newman in determining which courses she should take in order to complete her graduation requirements.

Information in the area of occupational education and social guidance is made available to students. Carolyn Batts, LaVonne Harrell, Shirley Howard and Paula Pugh find Mrs. Lipscomb an attentive listener as they discuss their problems.

SCHOOL NURSE STRESSES THE IMPORTANCE OF GOOD HEALTH

Marilyn Van Dyne comes to Nurse Holloway for counseling on such topics as physical or mental hygiene.

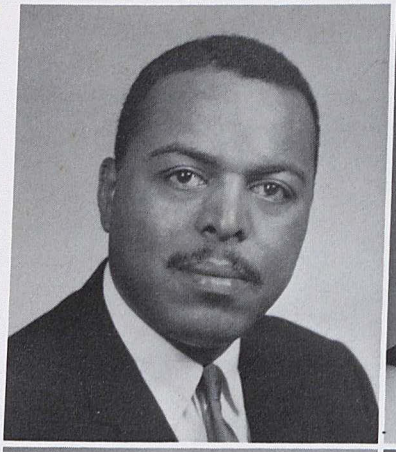

Mrs. Holloway checks Laura Butts' weight.

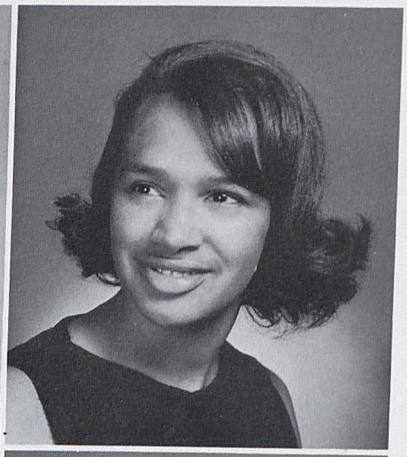

After the examination of the student comes the proper medication for minor illnesses or recommendation to go home and see the family physician. Mrs. Holloway confers with a parent in an endeavor to obtain information concerning a student's health.

ORGANIZATION AND ACTIVITIES

THE HUNTINGTON FAMILY SALUTES

STATE CHAMPIONS

The entire school is very proud of the 1966 Viking football squad. The team finished the season with a 10-0 record and were chosen as District and State Champions. Members of the Huntington Family salute the football squad.

SILVER AND GOLD

Some bring home the bacon, we bring home the gold and silver (medals, that is.) This is another reason why the United States reserve is deficient.

Other great Viking athletes have bestowed praise upon Huntington, and perhaps have even "put Newport News on the map," but none will be remembered

THE MIGHTY VIKINGS

DISTRICT CHAMPIONS

District Champions and State Runner-Ups, the powerful and balanced Viking basketball team has been a credit to Huntington High School, the Peninsula, the Eastern District and the State. The team is one of which every Huntingtonian is proud.

for all around excellency as will "Wonderful Walt."

Walter Bowser, a senior, was the first Negro to be selected by the Virginia Sportscasters and Writers Association as the most outstanding scholastic football player of the year. He was named to the All-Peninsula, All-Eastern District and All-State football teams. Being selected to the High School All American football team was probably his greatest honor.

In basketball, he was placed on the All-Peninsula, All-Eastern District and All State basketball teams. In addition to being selected to the All-Tournament team in the Eastern District Tournament he was named as the tournament's most valuable player.

STUDENT COUNCIL PROMOTES

The Student Council incorporates the educational, social, and moral values of students and, thus, participates in the direction and coordination of student organizations and activities. It participates in the discipline of students and cooperates fully with the administration and faculty in upholding the high standards of citizenship and scholarship set by the school.

Under the leadership of Miss M. W. Smith, the Student Council has aided the development of many student leaders, not only at Huntington but at various colleges and universities.

Officers are installed by Mr. W. D. Scales. Laura Browing, Russell Owens, Regina Henry, Hattie Spruiel, Cherald Jones, John Sullivan.

LEADERSHIP

Rev. V. Harris emphasizes to the student body the importance of high scholastic standards and good moral conduct. To create enthusiasm for scholarship, to instill a desire to render service, to promote competent leadership, and to encourage the development of good character should be the goal of every student during his high school career.

HALL PATROL

The Attendance Committee is the basic combatant aginst low absenteeism at Huntington. It strives for better scholastic achievement by encouraging students to attend school regularly. Under the direction of Mrs. N. Grandberry, chairman, and Mr. J. Baker, co-chairman, the committee compiles daily absentee cards and posts a chart each month with the number of absentees according to grade levels. During "Perfect Attendance Week," the committee awards certificates and buttons to students having maintained a perfect attendance thus far.

EDUCATION PAYS DIVIDENDS

CHARLES R. DREW CHAPTER OF THE FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The students at Huntington are proud of the Charles R. Drew Chapter of the Future Teachers of America Club. The club offers potential teachers appropriate experiences to help them develop readiness for college programs of teacher education. It also helps future teachers acquire an understanding of the history and development of our public schools, their purposes and objectives, and an appreciation of the contribution they have made to our democratic, free society. Not only do the members of the Future Teachers of America find learning the qualifications for becoming a quality teacher exciting, but also entertaining the patients at the Patrick Henry Hospital and sponsoring the Veteran's Day assembly.

SERVICE IS KEY OF FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

Acting as a service-growing unit to the school and community, the Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of pupils studying homemaking in junior and senior high schools. Its members are preparing themselves for a career as homemakers by joining and participating in the activities of the organization. Under the leadership of Mrs. Lucas, the club members attempt to develop a better understanding of the family.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

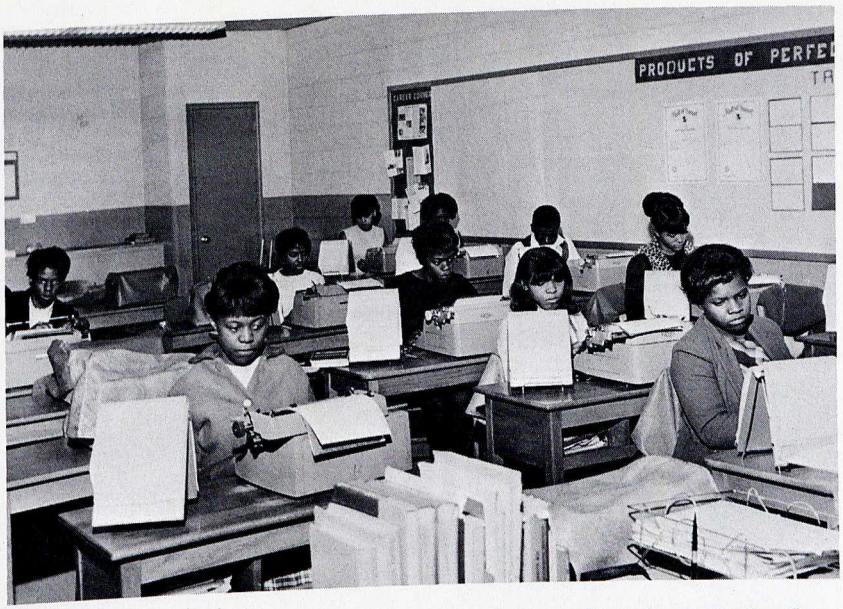

RIGHT: Dr. Juanita Strawn, Chairman of the Home Economics Department at Hampton Institute, installs the officers of the Future Homemakers of America Club.

TOMORROW'S BUSINESS LEADERS

Today's students are tomorrow's business leaders. This thought is the incentive for the Future Business Leaders of America and is uppermost in the minds of the members. The Huntingtonian salutes the F.B.L.A. for their untiring efforts in building business leaders of tomorrow.

This year the members of the F.B.L.A. have chosen Peggy Sneed, a senior, to lead them.

As potential business leaders of tomorrow, these students learn to develop their typing skills. Realizing accuracy and speed are essential in clerical work, they strive to type a minimum of sixty words per minute.

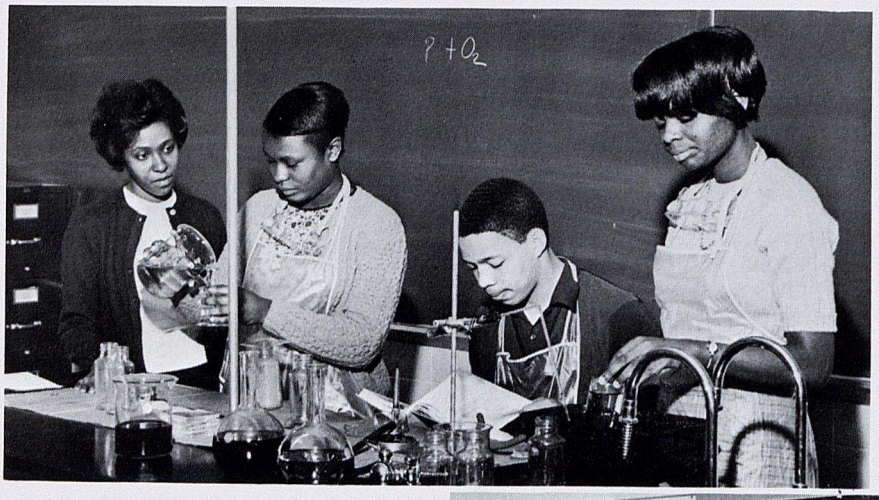

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

SCIENCE UNFOLDS MYSTERIES OF THE UNKNOWN

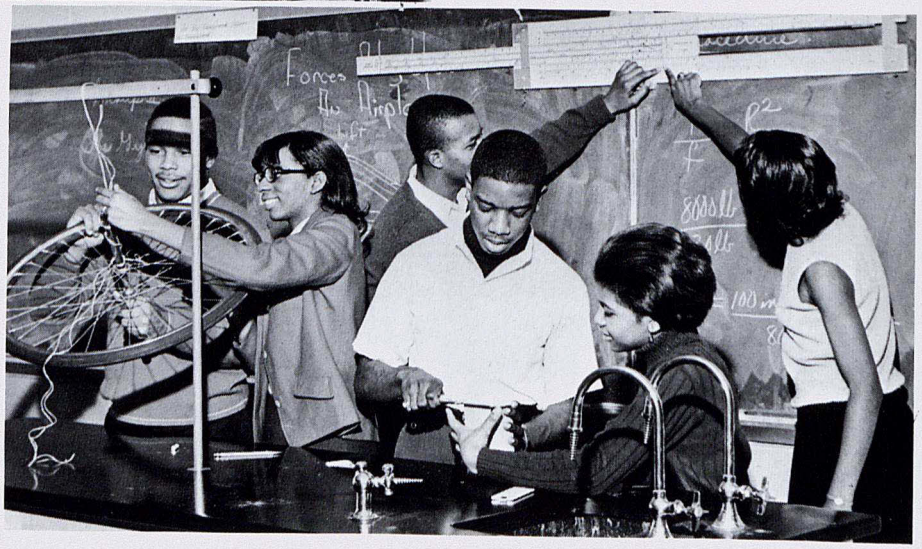

SCIENCE CLUB

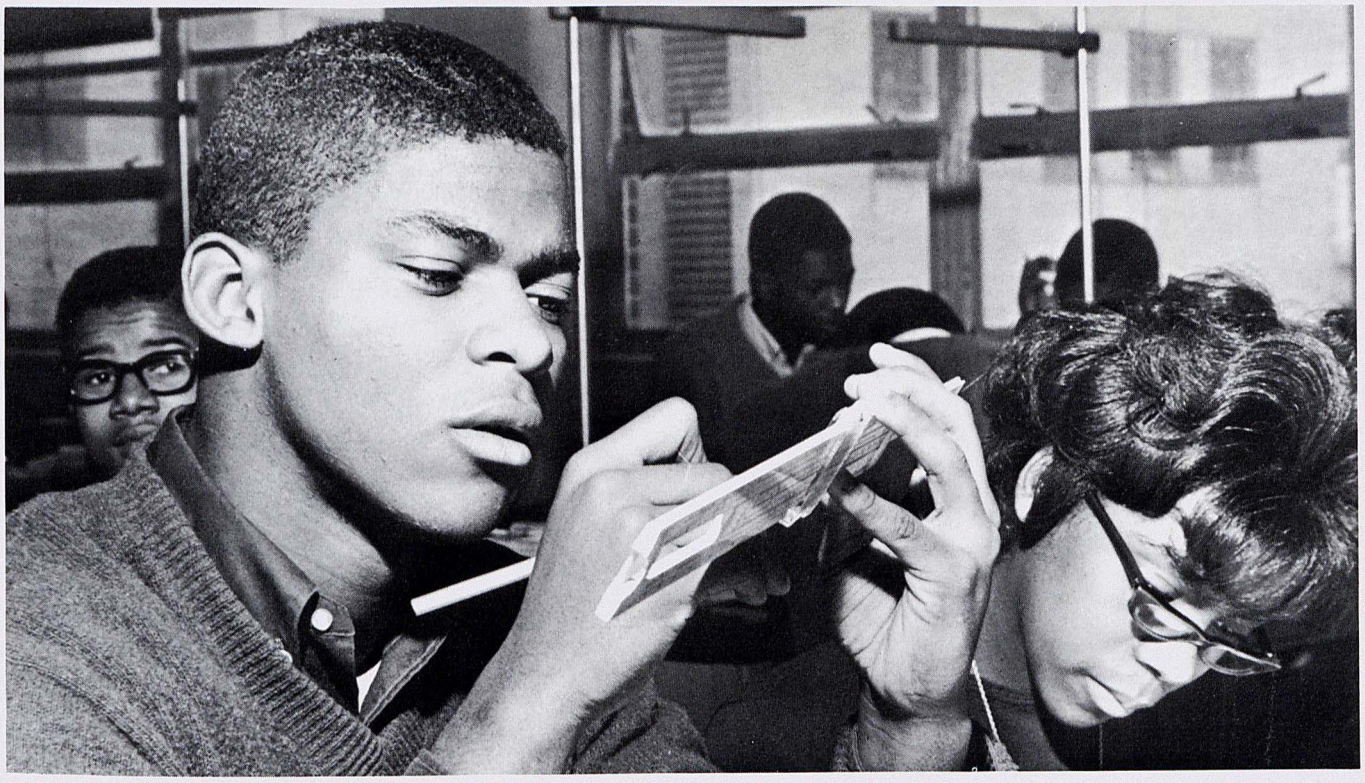

The Science Club is an organization dedicated to the perfection of certain scientific skills and thus rendering service to this Great Society. Under the leadership of Mr. T. M. Spencer, the club sponsors field trips, fairs, assemblies, and lectures in an all out effort to broaden the knowledge of students who are scientifically inclined as well as intellectually inquisitive.

Under the supervision of Mrs. McKenzie, chemistry students engage in many scientific experiments. Phyllis Johnson, Clilan Harmon and Laura Butts perform an experiment which necessitates group work in the lab.

Physics students find the use of various instruments helpful in confirming scientific theories.

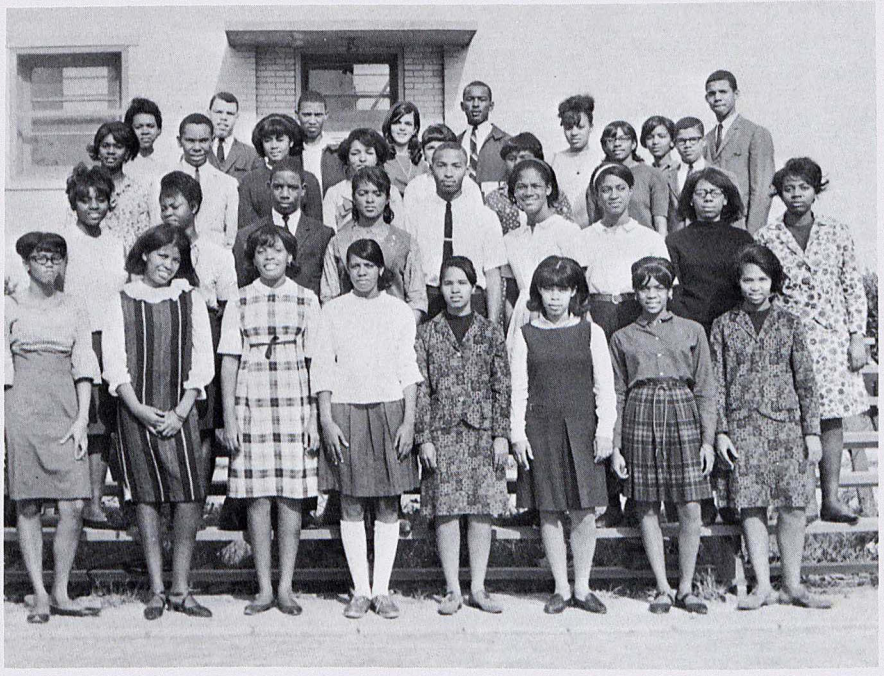

The slide rule proves to be an invaluable instrument in the mathematics class. Dwight Crewe expedites much time in mathematical computation, and Darrilyn Vassar checks the figures for accuracy.

MATHEMATICS CHALLENGES STUDENTS TO MASTER NEW CONCEPTS

MATHEMATICS CLUB

Offering an opportunity for engagement in mathematical pursuits, the Mathematics Club serves as a median by which students broaden their knowledge in the field of mathematics. Members of the club participate in science-math conferences, attend symposiums, and sponsors assemblies in the behalf of mathematical achievements.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' CULTURE CLUBS

Every society endeavors to perpetuate its culture through its younger generation by handing down customs which have proven to be in the best interest of all its members. For this purpose, the culture clubs were established. They have proven themselves invaluable in exposing students to socially accepted behavior patterns in many areas of life. In addition to this, the culture clubs have offered assistance to other school organizations in an effort to improve the cultural atmosphere at Huntington.

This is done with hopes that the students will have an opportunity to witness a debate.

The Mirror Staff, the information center of Huntington, brings together students possessing outstanding journalistic techniques and literary talents. It provides a means for students to learn the intricate techniques of journalism, to display outstanding literary talents of students, and to inform the school of the achievements of students, outstanding events and needs of the school. Bearing editorials and features written by some of the more creative minds around the campus, the MIRROR makes an effort to stay abreast of the important news around Huntington.

Members of the Mirror Staff agree that it takes teamwork and meticulous proofreading to come up with an excellent newspaper. Judging by their looks, the members of Mrs. Santiful's journalism class seem pleased with their efforts.

READ—READ—READ

The Library Club under the sponsorship of Mrs. Rose McLeod, encourages students to increase their reading interest and seeks to improve the library program in the school. The club celebrates National Book Week in an effort to stimulate reading interest and encourage students to pursue library work as a career.

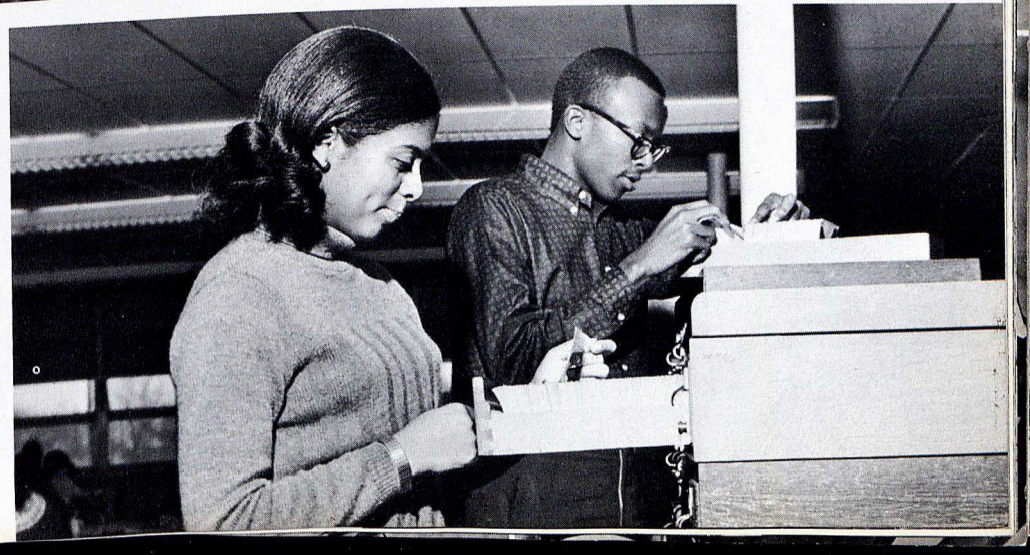

During their leisure time members of the club whose ambitions are becoming librarians and assistant librarians learn how to shelve books correctly. Leon Debrick, LaVonne Harrell and Davidsinia Willis shelve books.

In addition to keeping the school bulletin boards decorated with many excellent ideas and messages to the student body, members of the club aid the school by providing backdrops for assemblies.

ART ENCOURAGES CREATIVTY

Advanced art students engage in the creative sculpture phase of their art course.

SOCIAL STUDIES CLUB

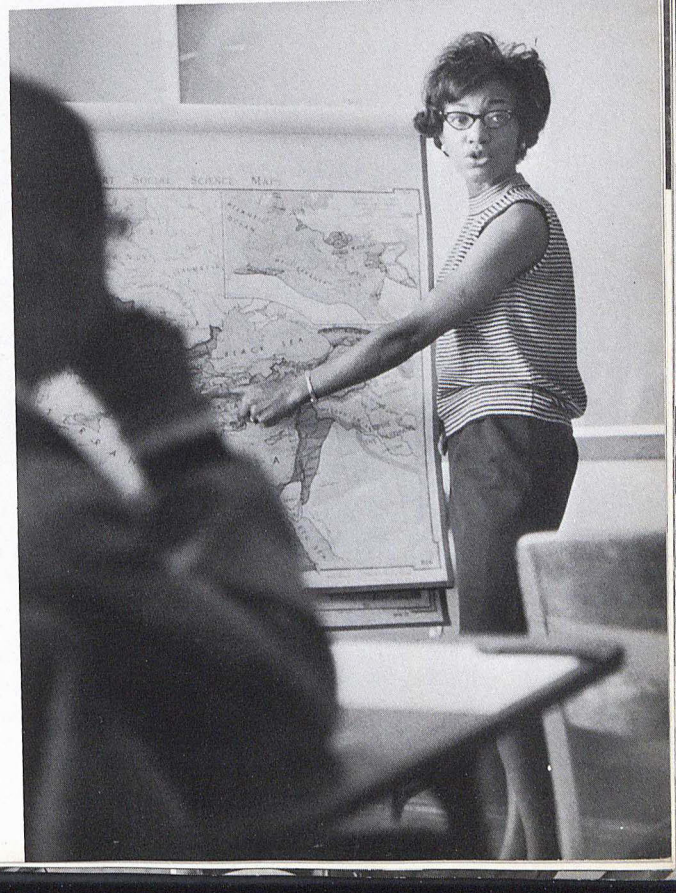

SOCIAL STUDIES INCREASES UNDERSTANDING OF WORLD PROBLEMS

To promote outstanding citizenship in today's youth and to instill a better understanding of our ever-evolving world are the principles which the Social Studies Club strives to obtain.

The club also sponsors assemblies on United Nation Day and during Negro History Week to highlight current information concerning the two observances. The club sponsors are Mrs. I. Baker, Mr. M. Milo and Mr. C. S. Turner.

Mrs. M. Woods attempts to prepare students for the place they must take in the modern world by explaining the influences of history upon today's world.

Members of the club focus their attention on the map as Miss A. Foriest points out one of the major trouble spots of the world.

LEADERSHIP—SCHOLARSHIP— CHARACTER SERVICE

EFFIE MAE GREEN CHAPTER OF NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

Members of the Effie Mae Green Chapter of the National Junior Honor Society play a vital role in the promotion of scholarship, leadership, citizenship, and character development among students at Huntington and throughout the community. They strive to promote an interest in scholarship in the eighth and ninth grade levels. Students in this organization have a scholastic average of B or above.

Both the Junior National Honor Society and the Senior National Honor Society have contributed much to the success of the school's academic program.

To create enthusiasm for scholarship, to instill a desire to render service, to promote competent leadership, and to encourage the development of good character are the aspirations of the Lillian M. Weaver Chapter of the National Senior Honor Society.

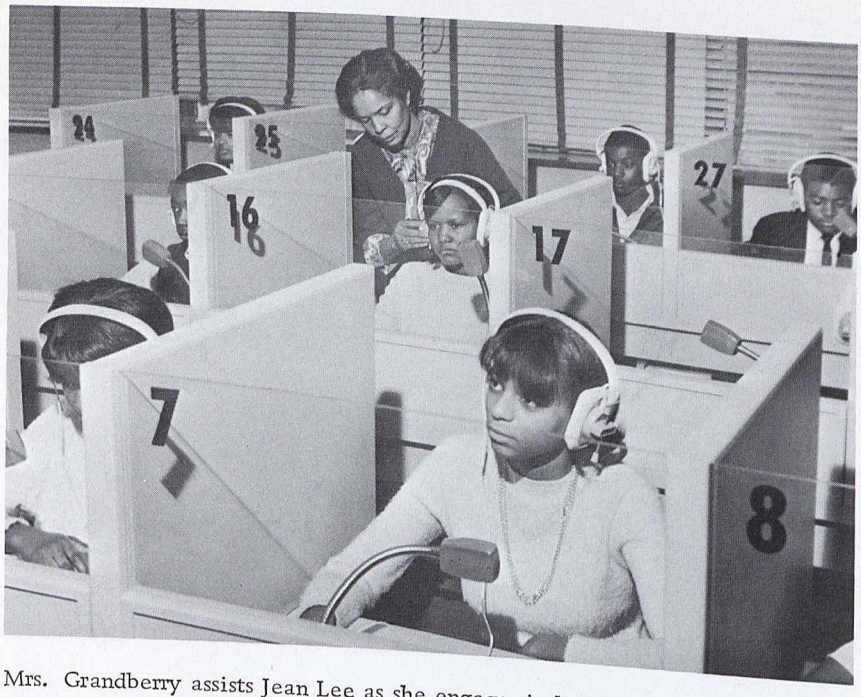

Open to the qualified students in their sophomore year, the National Senior Honor Society has contributed much to the success of the school's academic program.

Mrs. Grandberry assists Jean Lee as she engages in her laboratory conversation.

French and Spanish are an integral part of the curriculum at Huntington. Because of the ever increasing zeal for the two languages, the French and Spanish Clubs were formed to develop an intensive interest in the languages, its people, and the many other aspects of the countries where the two languages are spoken.

The Spanish Club is headed by Mr. D. Lawrence and Mrs. N. Grandberry is head of the French Club.

Many hours of hard work and concentration are essential for a good yearbook. The web of deadlines entangles many of the students and teachers into spending their Saturday mornings, and holidays completing unfinished business: writing and typing editorials, identifying countless faces, drawing layouts, and other such tasks. Through the efforts and cooperation of the administration, the faculty, the student body, and the community, the Huntingtonian staff is able to present to you a panoramic view of the 1966-67 school year.

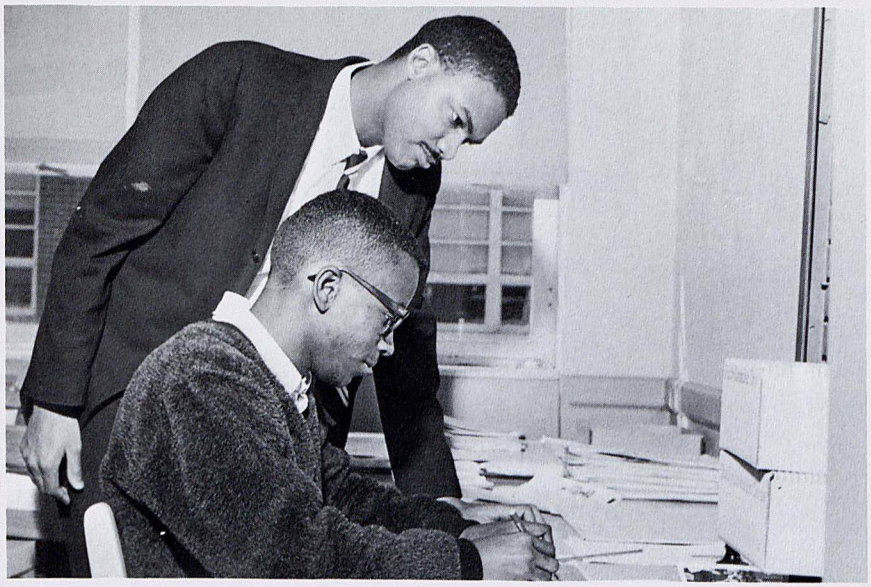

Smiles of success beam from the faces of surrounding advertisement solicitors as they turn in their patron list to Miss B. J. Barham.

Shirley Howard and Darilyn Vassar busily type captions describing the pictures to appear in the yearbook.

IT WAS A VERY GOOD YEAR . . .

"A HARD DAY'S NIGHT"

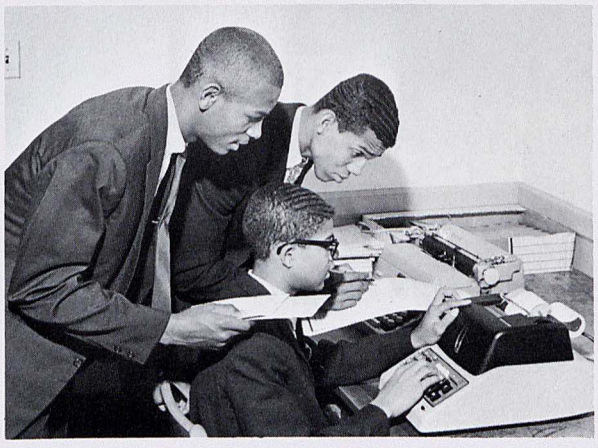

Saturday mornings and many nights are spent trying to meet the never ending deadlines. Mr. G. R. Blakeney, yearbook advisor, gives instructions to Morris Williams, co-editor, on how the hard work is taken out of scaling and cropping by the use of the scaleograph.

"I BELIEVE WE ARE GONNA MAKE IT"

Editor-in-chief, Mary Haynes and Thelma Courtney, co-editor, discuss pictures for various layouts.

Gary Palmer and Merritt Hope, members of the advertising staff tally the day's report with business manager, McKinley Price.

HUNTINGTON

Huntington High School Choir is a source of pleasure for the school and community. Under the direction of Mr. Arthur Bouldin the organization is one of which every Huntingtonian is proud. The choir is the winner of many awards and consistently receives a superior rating at district and state music festivals.

CHOIR

One of the finest a cappella choirs in the state of Virginia, their activities include the annual Christmas concert, spring recital, appearances on radio and television, numbers for Commencement and Baccalaureate exercises, and other programs in the community and state.

The Junior Band under the direction of Mr. R. Hill, is composed of approximately forty members. The band plays at school assemblies, concerts, and other activities. The concerts are often joint with the symphonic band.

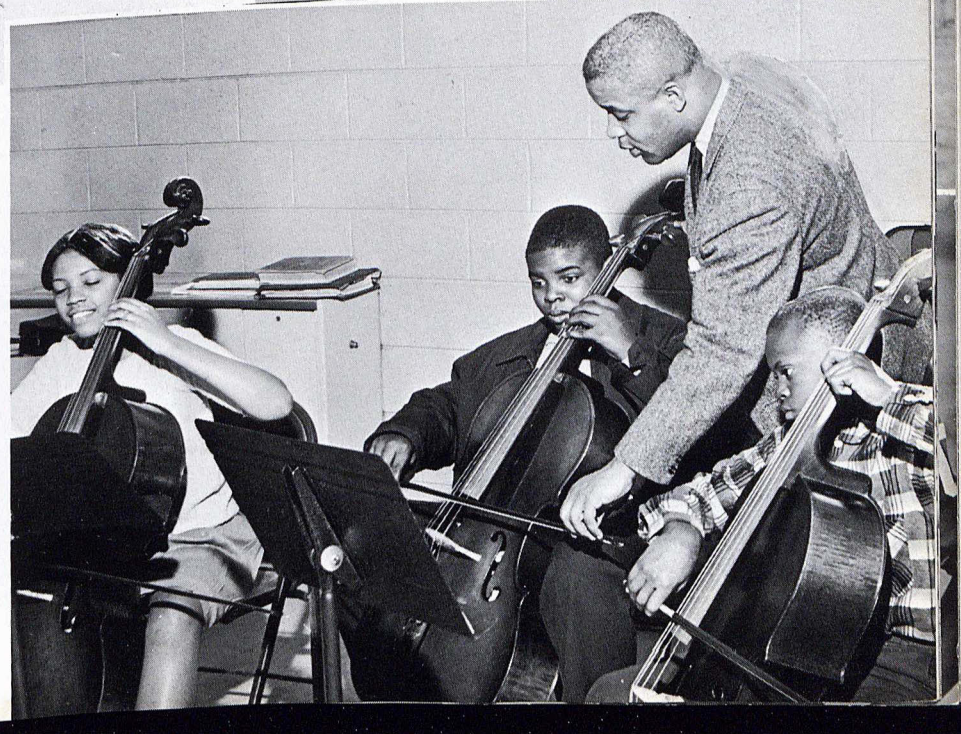

Mr. R. Hill, director of the string ensemble, gives each member of the violin section individual instructions.

THE SOUND OF MUSIC

As members of the junior band, students receive an opportunity to develop musical talents which ordinarily might never be discovered. By participating in the musical program of the school, the students may learn to play as many as four different instruments.

Members of the junior band and string ensemble play at school assemblies and at concerts and other activities.

Iris VanDyne, Joseph Jordan, and Curtis Hagman synchronize their bow movements to assure a pleasing sound.

THE MAKING OF A

BAND DIRECTOR

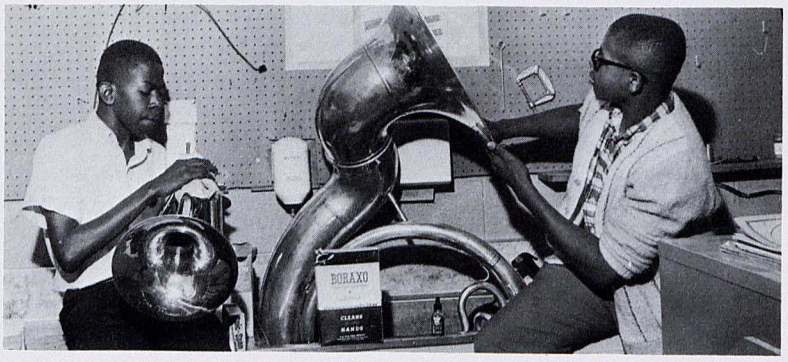

Few people realize the extent of preparation that is required to produce a band of Huntington's caliber. Director, Wray Herring has assembled a succession of extremely capable bands during his tenure as band director at Huntington High School. The secret of his success may be the elaborate preparation he demands from band participants and the pride they derive from belonging to one of the best bands in this area.

Instruments are issued to prospective band members.

Basic instruction in music fundamentals is provided.

Equipment maintenance is stressed.

Band members are taught to march in formations.

BAND

After qualifying for a position in the Viking band, top candidates are issued uniforms.

The grandeur of the famed Huntington High School Marching Band is equaled only by the superb performance of its fine group of majorettes.

The long hours of practice prove beneficial as Huntington's band enters the field playing the Viking Loyalty song.

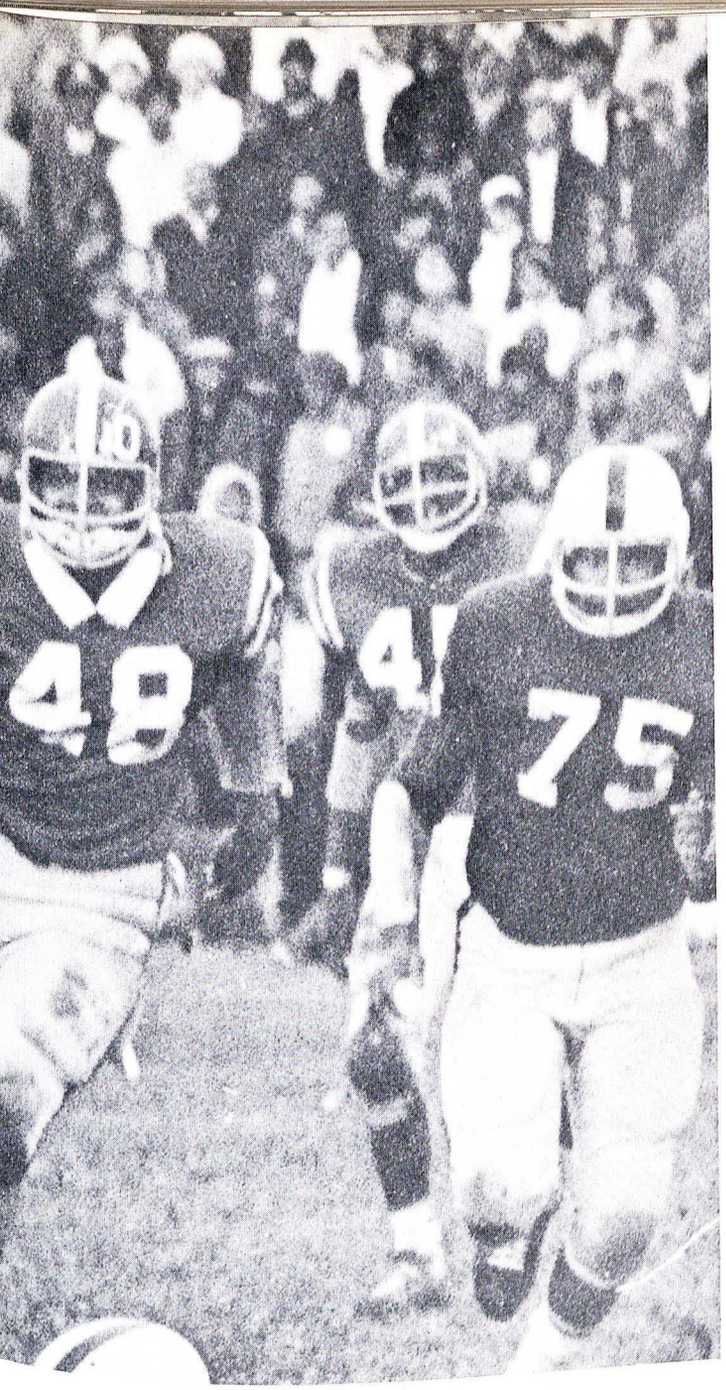

IT WAS A VERY GOOD YEAR . . .

A Viking supporter at the beginning of the football season did not have to be a soothsayer to predict a winning season for the 1966-67 school year Peninsula VIA Champions; however, the team exceeded even this accomplishment and fought its way to the exalted position of state champions. Even the most optimistic Huntingtonian could not have foreseen the opponent crushing machine which rumbled over ten strong teams for the school's first undefeated and untied season since 1950.

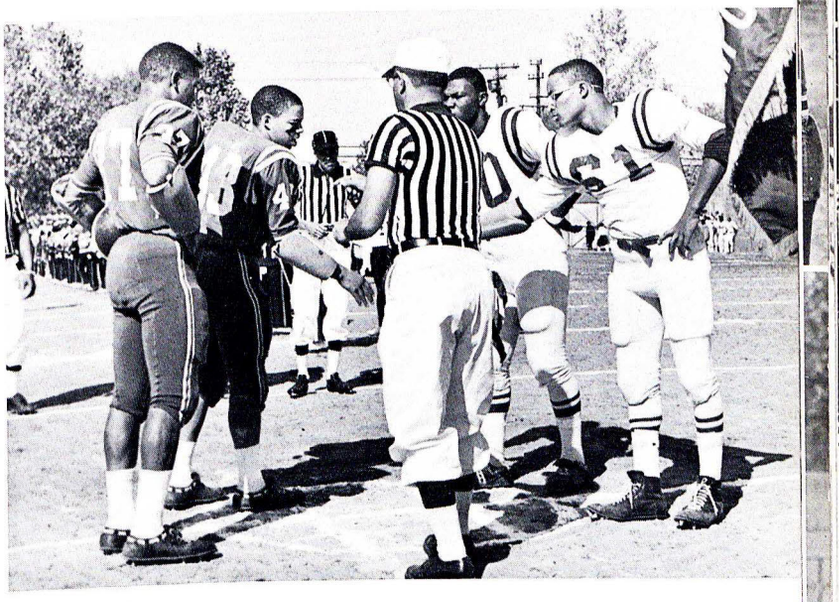

That both the explosive offense and devastating defense were alternately deciding factors in crucial games throughout the season is indicative of the balance and esprit de corps possessed by the team.

Although the team played as a unit, several individuals were selected as outstanding players. Chosen for the 1966 Virginia Interscholastic Association Eastern District All Stars Team were Walter Bowser, Larry Briggs, Adolph Hawkins, James Speight, Robert Thomas, and James

FOR FOOTBALL

Whitehead. Laurels bestowed upon Viking team members for their sensational play were not limited to the confines of the local district. This year's Virginia Sports Writers and Sportscasters Association All-State Football Team included Walter Bowser and James Whitehead. On the Honorable Mention list for this organization were Larry Briggs and Adolph Hawkins. Bowser was also voted the VSWSA Player of the Year--an honor never obtained before by a Negro athlete. As seen through their impressive record, it was, indeed a very good year for Huntington's MIGHTY VIKINGS.

HOMECOMING GAME

One of the most spectacular events of the football season was the Homecoming game, which featured the undefeated and untied Vikings versus the fighting Greyhounds of I. C. Norcom. The Vikings struck first and fast in the opening moments on a 18 yard scamper to paydirt by fullback, Robert Dixon.

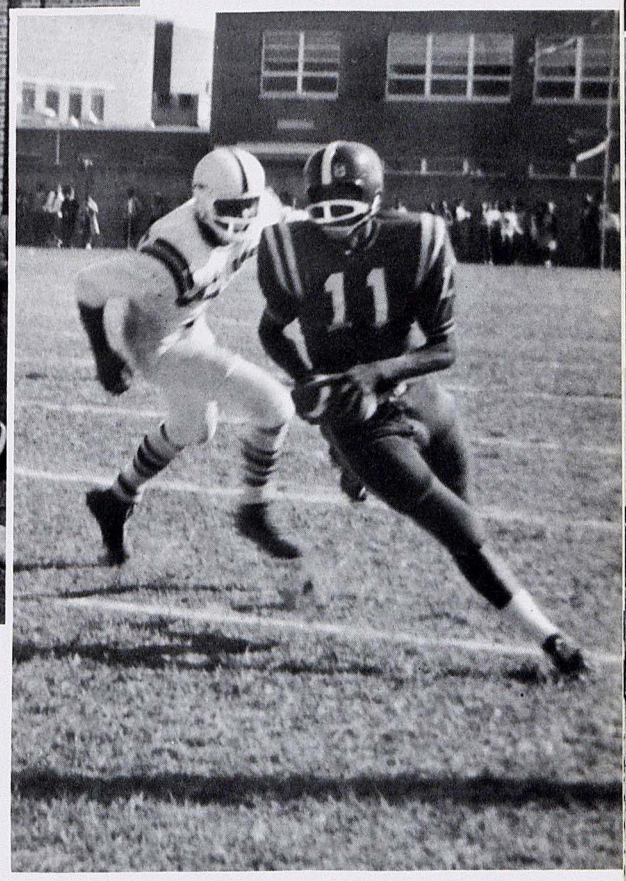

After several exchanges, Bowser was on target with a 6 yard aerial for another score. Another run play spotted the Vikings a 20-0 half-time lead as the Greyhounds found the hosts' goal untouchable.

Following Homecoming Festivities, the confident Vikings with Walter Bowser leading the way, in no time, the team was extending their lead to a whopping 34 points.

The Greyhounds prevented a shut-out in the closing moments of the final quarter. At the sound of the final gun Huntington had clinched a 40-14 win and its eighth straight victory.

CORONATION INITIATES HOMECOMING WEEK

Miss Homecoming and her escort were the evening's most attractive couple.

The theme of the school's annual coronation was "Love's Mystic Smile." In a formal extravaganza Miss Gloria Clinton was crowned the 1966-67 Miss Homecoming. Her entire royal court of lovely sweethearts was also presented to the acclaiming audience of students, teachers, parents and the like.

She is paid tribute by her loyal subjects.

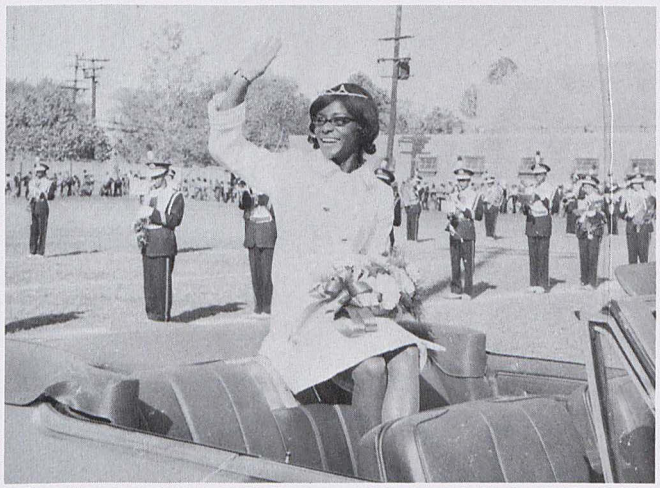

Loveliness, charm, and enticement were all invested in the royal court of the coronation.

Pageantry, excitement, and color filled Huntington's football stadium in October 29th as Viking followers observed the homecoming activities. Miss Homecoming, Gloria Clinton, a charming and personable senior was elected by her classmates to represent them on this occasion.

Gloria not only reigned as Miss Homecoming, but she was elected President of the senior class. She is also a member of the Band, the Science Club and the Senior National Honor Society.

Gloria Clinton awaits anticipatingly the bestowing of her title as Mr. W. D. Scales places the crown upon her head.

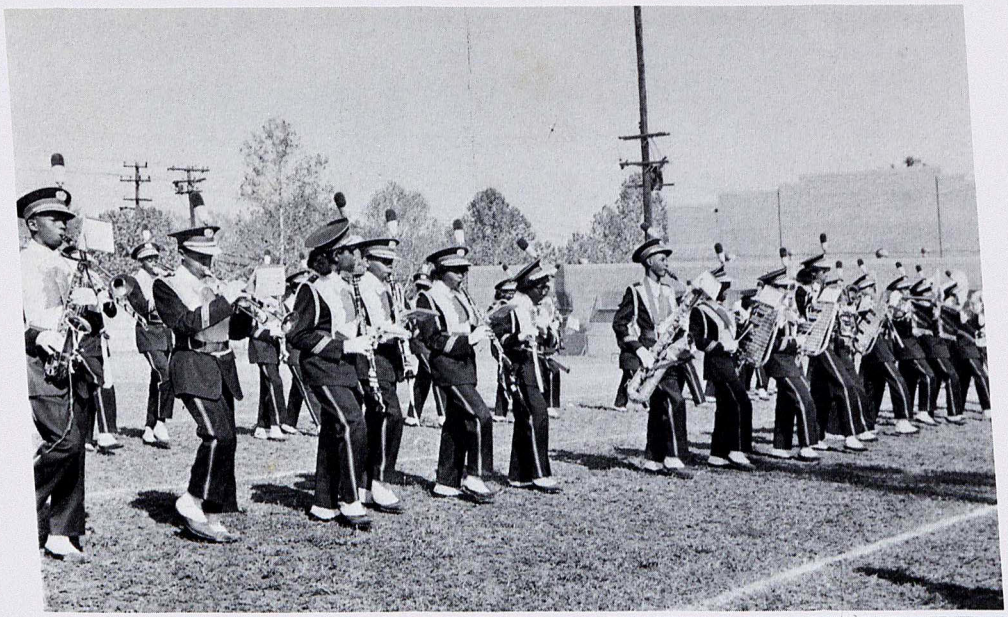

A ROYAL SALUTE
Miss Homecoming waves to her loyal subjects as the procession moves onto the field.

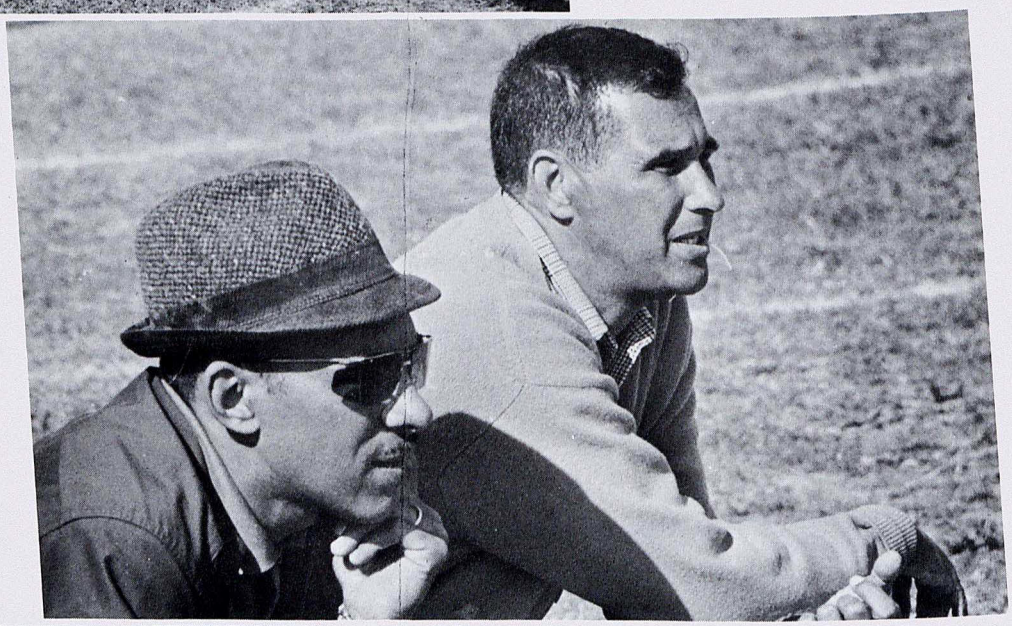

Officially ending the two days of Homecoming festivities, Gloria Clinton and Calvin Robinson rejoin the fans in the grandstand for the second half of the game.

OTHER SIDES OF THE GAME

Marching 100 winds up its half-time entertainment.

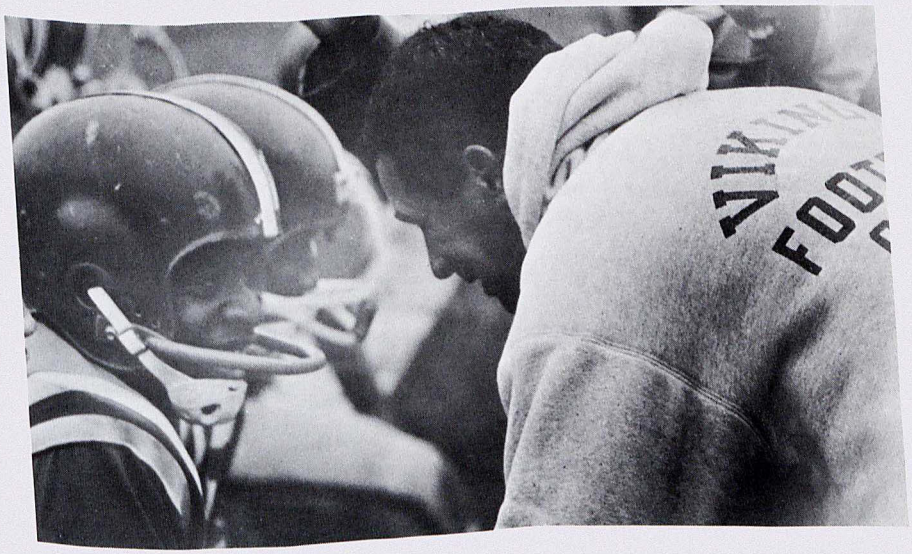

Coaches Madden and Kane, head football strategists, relax as they pensively watch their boys limber up following half-time.

"Noisemakers" warm up their volumes.

James Whitehead is tackled after catching the ball for a touchdown.

Coach Madden congratulates Adolph Hawkins for his individual effort on a sensational play.

Viking quarterback, Walter Bowser scrambles in the backfield until he finds an open receiver.

HARD PRACTICE NETS VICTORIES

Designed to teach good sportsmanship, to build sound bodies and minds, and to afford capable students an opportunity to perform outside of the classroom, basketball has become a major activity at Huntington. Coached by Mr. R. C. Crittenden, the team has received many invitations to participate in championship competition.

Thus far, having won eleven of the fifteen games played, the Vikings are looking forward to a successful year.

Melvin Spratley (50) looks on anxiously as William Wynn fights for possession of the ball.

Getting his first chance to play as a regular, Spratley scored 19 points, hauled down 17 rebounds, and blocked several Tiger shots.

William Wynn and Herman Green also found the action rough under the basket during this game.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLASSES CAMPAIGN FOR SOUND BODIES

In this age, when machines cause man to sit more than ever, it is vital for growing boys and girls to receive stimulating physical exercise. Classes in physical education meet this need by providing each pupil with a variety of activities.

DOWN ON COUNT THREE

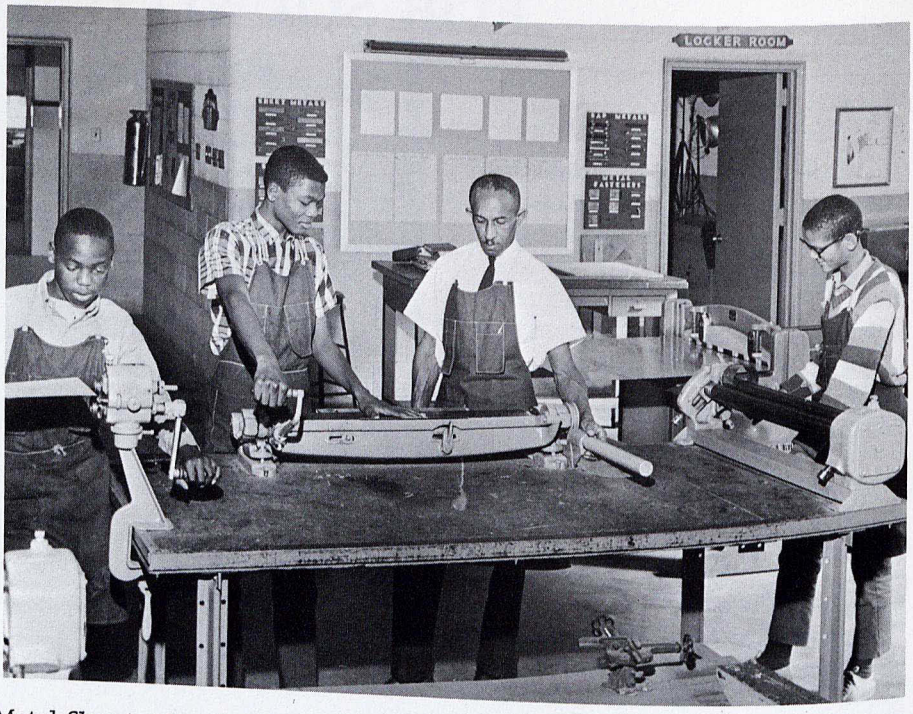

Mr. W. Kane gives his physical education class instruction on the deep knee bend exercise. This exercise and other callisthenics help keep the body limber.

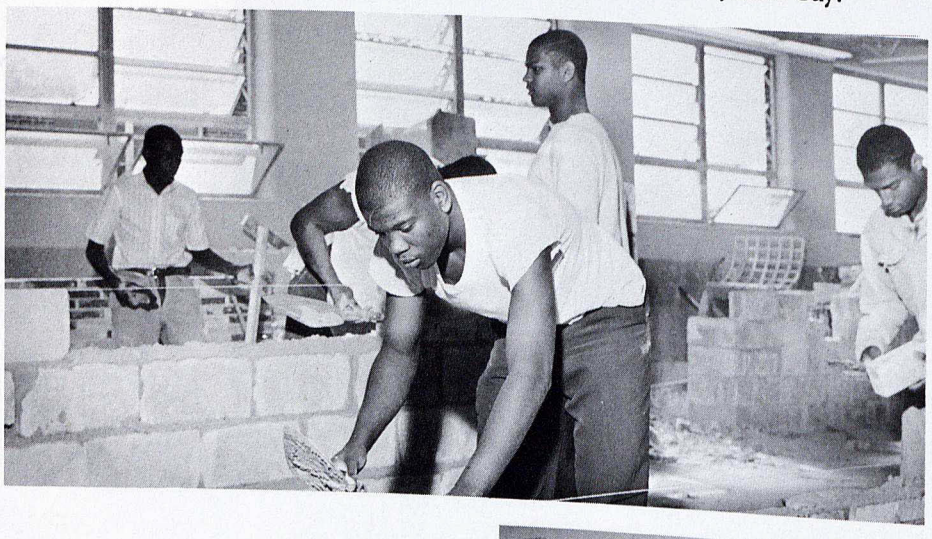

In addition to keeping their bodies healthy, students develop skills in recreational games through the demonstrations of Mrs. Jennings.

LEARN BY DOING

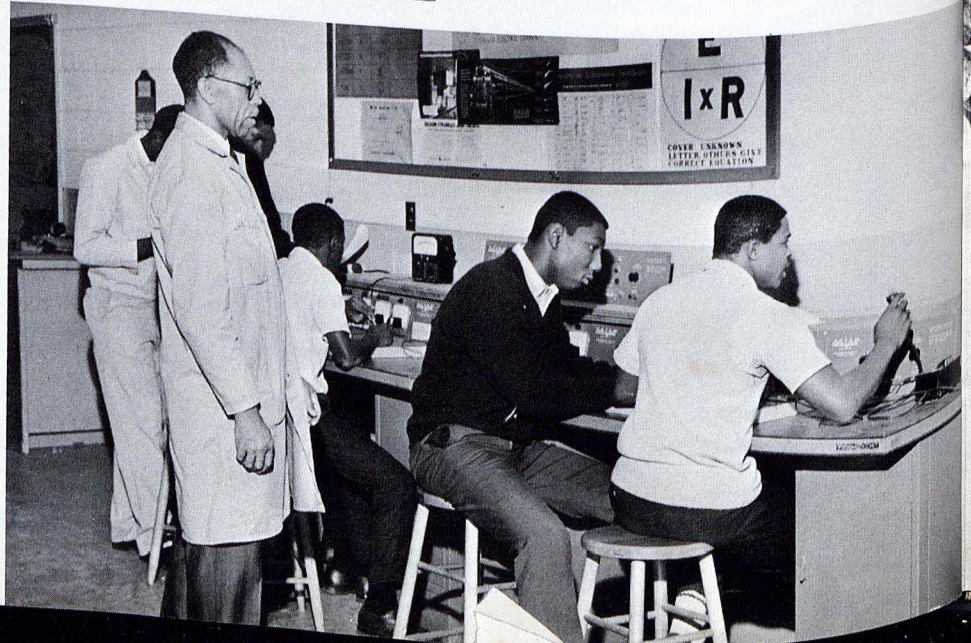

In the industrial art classes the philosophy of the educator John Dewey, who advocated learning by doing, is stressed. Boys make articles which they may retain. Some of these articles made include wall racks, lamps, metal book ends, candle holders, and ash trays.

Metal Shop is taken by the eighth and ninth grade boys as an introduction to the field of industrial arts. Mr. R. McGhee is the instructor. Boys are Willie Richardson, Hillard Dickens and James Guy.

Upon graduation, skills acquired by Arnold Williams, Charlie Williams, Ethelridge Pearson, and Walter Hopson will be beneficial.

Spencer Slade and Willie Kerby gain valuable experience in Mr. Hale's electronics class.

CAMPUS LIFE

LIBRARY

The quiet atmosphere that prevails in the library makes studying a pleasure. While in the library James Allen finds time to read, takes notes, and prepare class assignments.

Huntington's scholastic and extracurricular programs are often portrayed through attractive bulletin boards. The Huntingtonian staff captured the eye of all students with its charming bulletin board which depicted all phases of school life.

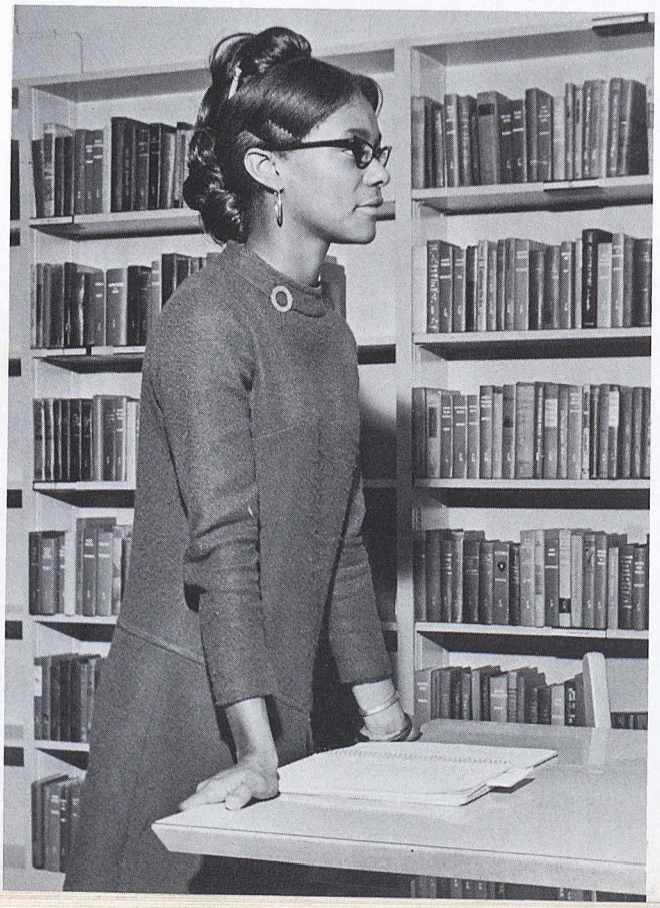

Homemaking is necessary at some point in every woman's life. Mrs. Cobb acquaints Gloria Cherry and Evora Brown, eighth graders, with the various cooking utensils.

Leading the class of 1967 through a full year of meetings were Alice Clarke, assistant secretary; DeVeda Scales, secretary; Gary Palmer, vice president; Susie Lynch, historian; Paul Pugh, treasurer; Janice Williams, chaplain.

STUDENTS COMPLETING SPECIAL EDUCATION

Special Education classes are designed for the education of students whose needs cannot be adequately met in regular classes. The program recognizes the fact the goals of education for these pupils must be in keeping with their capacities, limitations, and interest. The major concern is training for participation in the occupational world.

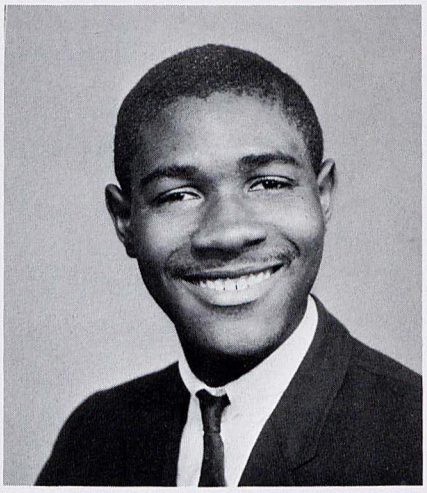

The classes seek further to develop the individual as a well integrated personality and a good citizen and to discover his strengths and weaknesses.

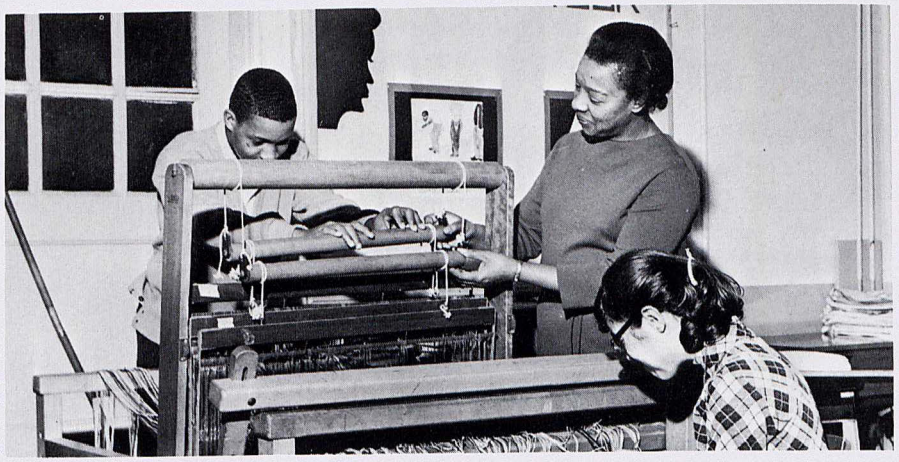

ARTHUR BOLDEN

ADVERTISEMENTS

GOOD SHIPS START HERE

Fine ships don't roll off a production line. They're built efficiently and well only by men whose skills and knowledge are broad. That's why Newport News begins at the beginning with its own selective Apprentice School.

High School graduates enter on the basis of academic record. But selectivity doesn't stop there. In classroom and shop, in the drafting room and out in the yard, each man's special abilities are watched and developed.

Some become skilled and versatile machinists. Others become expert electricians or precision tool makers. Many become supervisors. Some earn scholarships for advanced training at colleges and technical schools.

We think the School's a pretty inspiring place, because its end results are good men and good ships.

Our year has been filled with moments of laughter, excitement, friendship, and study.

Our days have been like a one-way street that we will never travel again. Many of these days may have seemed insignificant; but these seemingly insignificant days contained activities that made our year memorable. Whether cheering our team to victory, cramming for a quiz, or having the time of our lives at the dance, we will come to treasure these moments for they made . . . A VERY GOOD YEAR.

Our time has been wisely spent in learning and working most assuredly toward our later goals of success.

We wish to acknowledge the help given us by our parents and teachers. We realize that our many successes were possible because of their help and we are very appreciative.

The 1967 HUNTINGTONIAN staff acknowledges the support, interest, and cooperation of our administrators:

MR. W. D. SCALES, Principal
MR. C. C. JOHNSON, Assistant Principal
MRS. E. M. GREEN, Assistant Principal
MR. W. H. HOLMES, Dean of Boys

To Miss Peggye L. Johnson, Miss B. J. Baraham, and Mr. Gerald R. Blakeney, our advisors, who have given unselfishly of their time, energy, and guidance in the production of our yearbook, we express our deepest appreciation.

OUR MANY THANKS TO

Mr. N. Pleasant	Miss D. Thomas
Mrs. F. Harrell	Mr. A. Lewis
Miss C. Wynder	Mr. B. McLeod
Mr. W. Herring	Mr. J. Royster

Mr. Fred Whiting for his photographic assistance.

Michael Hargraves and James Hairston, student photographers.

The American Yearbook Company and Mr. William Edwards, sales representatives, for their advice and patience in our never-ending struggle to meet the all-important deadlines and

The faculty and the school personnel for their invaluable services.
